FEATURED WORKSHOP

MASTERING FIREGROUND COMMAND CALM THE CHAOS!

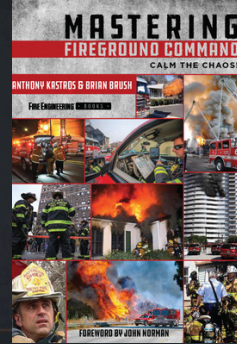

Join Chief Anthony Kastros on the beautiful Oregon Coast for an engaging workshop focused on improving fireground command, developing confident officers, and building high-performance command teams. Through real-world incidents, lessons learned, and practical command strategies, participants will explore size-up, risk/gain decision-making, communications, tactical supervision, accountability, and incident organization.

Learn how to reduce command overload, improve coordination, and build the trust and shared understanding needed to make better decisions under pressure. Come to Cannon Beach ready to challenge your thinking, strengthen your command skills, and bring practical solutions back to your department.

Train at the highest level.
Recharge on the coast.

FEATURED INSTRUCTOR Chief Anthony Kastros

Anthony (Andoni) Kastros is a 32-year veteran of the fire service and Battalion Chief with Sacramento Metro Fire District (ret). He is a recipient of the George D. Post Instructor of the Year Award from the International Society of Fire Service Instructors and Fire Engineering and a keynote speaker for FDIC-International.

He is the author of Mastering Fireground Command – Calm the Chaos! and has trained thousands of firefighters nationwide in leadership, command, strategy, and tactics. A former USAR Team Manager with Sacramento Task Force 7, he deployed to Ground Zero on 9/11. He also served on a Type 1 Incident Management Team and led Metro Fire's Command Training Center and Rescue Company program.

Stronger together. Safer together.
